

Color-patterns in Metal Clay Rings

In this workshop you will learn how to make rings from base metal clay and decorate them with different color patterns, such as bulls eye canes, mokume-gane, and empty space.

We will make two types of rings: a band ring and a ring with ornamental front. If time allows we will also be producing color patterns using the ClayMill Extruder.

Experience in metal clay is required.

